Attendance Policy

Version	1.2
Based on Model Policy:	DfE guidance, Nov 2016 Model policy on attendance, Sep 2021
Name/Title of responsible committee/individual:	Headteacher
Date issued:	October 2021
Review frequency:	Annual
Target audience:	Staff, parents and governors

Our Mission Statement, “learning to grow in knowledge, faith and love through friendship with Jesus and Mary”, underpins all that we do at St Bernadette Catholic Primary School.

The Governing Body shall conduct the School with a view to promoting high standards of educational achievement.

St Bernadette Catholic Primary School is committed to eliminating discrimination, advancing equality of opportunity and fostering good relations between different groups. These factors were considered in the formation and review of this policy and will be adhered to in its implementation and application across the whole school community.

The School will promote the Gospel values together with the values of democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty and mutual respect and tolerance of those with different faiths and beliefs. Staff and governors will actively challenge pupils, colleagues or parents expressing opinions contrary to fundamental British Values, including ‘extremist’ views.

Purpose

Promoting regular school attendance to ensure every pupil has access to full-time education to which they are entitled is a key component in the Government's strategy to raise educational standards. The DfE view is that unnecessary absence from school is unacceptable and must be prevented and tackled by schools.

The law requires that children of compulsory school age¹ receive a suitable full-time education. Parents of children registered at this school have a legal duty to make sure that their child is punctual and attends regularly.

Policy

The quality of teaching and learning delivered at St Bernadette Catholic Primary School does not benefit pupils if they are not present. In order that pupils can take full advantage of the education we provide, the school will work with parents to ensure that all pupils attend school regularly and on time, and will take appropriate action to deal with any problems which may affect full attendance.

The school believes that helping to promote a pattern of regular attendance is everybody's responsibility: parents, pupils and all members of school staff.

Registers

Registers are taken at the beginning of each morning and afternoon session using the national set of symbols as advised by the Department for Education (Appendix 1). The registers will record whether each pupil is present; attending an approved educational activity; absent; or unable to attend due to exceptional circumstances. For absences of children of compulsory school age, the register will also indicate whether the absence has been authorised by the school.

The morning register opens at 8.55am and closes at 9.30am.

The afternoon register opens at 1.15pm and closes at 1.20pm.

Pupils arriving late but whilst the register is still open will be marked as 'late' but statistically counted as present for that session. (Code L). Pupils arriving after the register has closed and without a satisfactory explanation for the lateness are marked as 'unauthorised absent' for that session (Code U).

When a pupil arrives late having missed registration, his/her presence on site should be noted in a book in the school office for purposes of emergency evacuation, etc.

¹ Compulsory school age is defined as beginning from age five when a child should attend school from the start of the term commencing on or after his fifth birthday.

Absence from school

When the reason for a pupil's absence cannot be established at the beginning of a session, the absence will be recorded as unauthorised and any subsequent correction to the register made as soon as practicable after the reason for the absence has been established.

Where children are absent from school, the school will follow up to:

- ascertain the reason;
- ensure the proper safeguarding action is taken; and
- identify whether the absence is approved or not (see Appendix 2).

It is for the school – not the parent – to determine whether or not an absence is approved and it should be noted that the Headteacher does not have authority to grant any leave of absence during term time unless there are exceptional circumstances. It follows that the taking of family holidays during term time is strongly discouraged and the Headteacher's discretion to authorise such absences will not be exercised in the case of holidays, unless there are genuine exceptional circumstances. If in exceptional circumstances leave is granted, the Headteacher will stipulate the number of school days the child can be away from school.

Re-integration

If any child is reluctant to attend school he/she and the parents/carers will be supported by the school to address the underlying reasons with a view to ensuring a swift return to school.

Long-term absentees will be supported in their return to school in partnership with parents and the appropriate professionals.

Celebrating excellent attendance

Excellent attendance will be celebrated

- by acknowledging at "Roll of Honour" Assembly, on a weekly basis, the classes in KS1 and KS2 with the highest percentage attendance
- through the award of Herts County Council certificates for 100% attendance at the end of the school year.

Addressing poor attendance

Where there are concerns about a pupil's punctuality or attendance, the school will first contact the parents/carers to discuss the reasons and agree a plan for improvement.

Attendance Improvement Officer

If poor attendance persists, this will be reported to the Attendance Improvement Officer (AIO). A pupil will be identified as a persistent absentee if overall absence equates to 10% or more of possible sessions, whether the absences are authorised or not².

The school will notify the AIO of any pupils of compulsory school age who fail to attend school regularly, have irregular attendance, or have ten or more consecutive school days' absence without the school's permission.

Power to prosecute

It should be noted that, as part of promoting good attendance and punctuality, Hertfordshire Council will use its legal powers to enforce school attendance where this becomes problematic, including powers to prosecute parents who fail to comply with a school attendance order (Section 443 of the Education Act 1996) or failure to ensure their child's regular attendance at school (Section 444 of the Education Act 1996). The use of legal action is outlined in Appendix 3.

² If a pupil's absence has been authorised by the school, the LA cannot cite that absence as evidence of non attendance under Section 444 of the Education Act 1996

Penalty notices

As an alternative to prosecution and to enable parents to discharge potential liability for conviction for that offence by paying a penalty, the Headteacher may request the issue a penalty notice. A penalty notice is a suitable intervention in circumstances of parentally condoned truancy, where the parent is judged capable of securing their child's regular attendance but is not willing to take responsibility for doing so. For example, it could be used where a parent has failed to engage in any supportive measures. The notice must be issued in accordance with the local authority's Code of Conduct³.

Removal from Roll

There are strict grounds as to when pupils may be removed from the admissions register⁴. When the school has decided to delete a pupil's name from the admission roll the Local Authority must be notified as soon as the ground for removal is met and no later than the time at which the pupil's name is removed from the register.

Requests for Family Holidays During Term time

Amendments to the 2006 Pupil Registration (England) Regulations which come into effect on 1st September 2013 remove all references to family holidays and extended leave for holidays in term time. The amendments make clear that headteachers may not grant any leave of absence during term time unless there are exceptional circumstances. It is for the Headteacher to determine what constitutes exceptional circumstances and for them to determine the number of school days a child can be away from school if the leave is granted.

At the request from Headteachers the local authority has provided a standard letter to be handed to parents and carers to support the governing body and Headteachers in communicating their decision making regarding individual requests for leave of absence for holidays in term time (Appendix 5)

Responsibilities of school, parents and pupils

School

School staff will set a good example in matters of attendance and punctuality.

Schools are responsible for supporting the attendance of their pupils and for dealing with problems that may lead to non-attendance.

Schools should:-

- work actively to maximise attendance rates - both in relation to individual pupils and for the pupil body as a whole - as one of their key tasks
- have clear policies in place to address persistent absence
- have clear policies in place to address the attendance of vulnerable groups
- support parents in ensuring the regular and punctual attendance of pupils and promptly respond to any issue which may lead to non-attendance
- be sensitive to the needs of individual parents and this should be reflected in the way in which attendance issues are addressed. Schools should recognise that some parents have difficulty understanding written communications. They should also recognise the reluctance of some parents to come into school.

⁴ Regulation 8 of the Education (Pupil Registration) Regulations 2006

Parents

Parents are legally responsible for ensuring their child's regular and punctual attendance

Parents will:

- ensure that their children arrive at school on time, properly dressed and ready to learn;
- instil in their children an appreciation of the importance of attending school regularly;
- take an active interest in their children's school career, praising and encouraging good work and behaviour and attending parents' evenings and other relevant meetings;
- work in partnership with the school to resolve issues which may lead to non-attendance;
- ensure that they are aware of St Bernadette School's attendance procedures and notify the school if their children are absent for any reason (see Appendix 4);
- avoid arranging routine medical/dental appointments during school hours;
- not book holidays during term time;
- only request leave of absence for their child in exceptional circumstances, by completing an 'Application for Leave of Absence' form three weeks in advance - available from school office or the school website

Pupils

Pupils are expected to be ready to learn and must remember to hand any note giving reasons for absence to their class teacher.

Governing Body

The governing body will:

- ensure that school registers are kept.
- agree the annual attendance target for the school. The attendance target for 2019/20 is 96%

Monitoring and Review

The Headteacher has overall responsibility for monitoring attendance at the school.

The marking of class registers must comply with the DfE Advice on School Attendance. The School Office will monitor and advise if incorrect markings are used.

If there has been any absence for which a written explanation has not been received, the School Secretary will send a form to the child's parents via pupil post. If no response is received a reminder will be sent by email. In some circumstances, the absence of a written explanation may mean the absence is recorded as unauthorised.

Where children are persistently absent or late, the School Office staff will inform the Headteacher. On a monthly basis, a report showing children with attendance below 90% in the year to date, and a second report showing children who have been late on two or more occasions in the previous calendar month, will be prepared for the Headteacher, who will decide whether or not it is necessary to contact parents. In the case of persistent absence or punctuality issues, the Headteacher may involve the Attendance Improvement Officer.

Absence figures for the year to date, differentiating between authorised and unauthorised absences, will be reported to governors in the termly Headteacher's Report.

Annual attendance statistics are provided in the School Prospectus which is published on the school's website.

Y	Unable to attend due to exceptional circumstances	Not counted in possible attendances
Z	Pupil not on admission register	Not counted in possible attendances
#	School closed to all pupils (Planned)	Not counted in possible attendances

Appendix 2 - Understanding types of absence:

Schools must take the attendance register at the start of the first session of each school day and once during the second session. On each occasion they must record whether every pupil is:

- Present;
- Attending an approved educational activity⁵;
- Absent; or,
- Unable to attend due to exceptional circumstances.

For absences, the school will apply a code in accordance with the DfE guidelines which will determine whether or not the absence is recorded as authorised or unauthorised.

Authorised absences are mornings or afternoons away from school for a good reason including illness, medical/dental appointments which are unavoidable, sporting events, music exams, etc. and these are coded accordingly.

Absence will be authorised if:

- the pupil is absent with leave⁶
- the pupil is ill or prevented from attending by any unavoidable cause. Note that although the school will not routinely demand medical evidence to authorise absence on the grounds of ill health, if there are concerns about the legitimacy of an illness, the school may record the absence as unauthorised and will advise parents accordingly.
- the absence occurs on a day exclusively set aside for religious observance by the religious body to which the pupil's parent belongs
- the school at which the child is a registered pupil is not within walking distance of the child's home; and no suitable arrangements have been made by the LA for any of the following: the child's transport to and from school; boarding accommodation for the child at or near the school; enabling the child to become a registered pupil at a school nearer to his/her home
- the pupil is the child of Traveller parents who are known to be travelling for occupational purposes and have agreed this with the school but it is not known whether the pupil is attending alternative provision
- there is a close family bereavement
- leave of absence has been applied for in advance and has been granted because of exceptional circumstances relating to the application.
- leave of absence should be granted to allow a pupil to take part in a performance within the meaning of s37 of the Children and Young Persons Act 1963 (c) for which a child performance licence has been issued

Unauthorised absences are those which the school does not consider reasonable and for which no "leave" has been given. This type of absence can lead to the Local Authority using sanctions and/or legal proceedings. This includes:-

- Parents/carers keeping children off school unnecessarily
- Truancy
- Absences which have never been properly explained
- Children who arrive at school too late to get a mark
- Shopping, looking after other children, or birthdays
- Leave of absence which has not been agreed

⁵ The key features of approved educational activity are that they must be:

- educational and
- approved by the school and
- supervised by the school or someone authorised by the school

⁶ Defined as 'leave granted by any person authorised to do so by the governing body or proprietor of the school'

Appendix 3 - Local Code of Conduct – Penalty Notices for Unauthorised Absence (Truancy)

Introduction

Section 23 of the Anti-Social Behaviour Act 2003 empowers the police, designated Local Authority Officers and Headteachers and Deputy and Assistant Headteachers authorised by them to issue penalty notices in cases of unauthorised absence (truancy) of pupils of statutory school age. The government requires Local Authorities to issue a Code of Conduct to which all parties involved must adhere. Penalty notices may be issued only in accordance with the terms of the Code of Conduct.

The purpose of the Code of Conduct is to ensure that:

- the powers are applied consistently and fairly
- duplicate notices are not issued
- issuing a notice does not conflict with proceedings proposed or being taken by the Local Authority under section 444 of the Education Act 1996
- suitable arrangements are in place for the administration of the penalty notice scheme.

The Law

Section 23 of the Anti-Social Behaviour Act 2003 added sections 444A and 444B to section 444 of the Education Act 1996. These sections introduced penalty notices as an alternative to prosecution and enable parents to discharge potential liability for that offence by paying a penalty. The Education (Penalty Notices) (England) Regulations 2007 set out the framework for the operation of the scheme.

All those defined as a parent under section 576 of the Education Act 1996 are considered to be parents for the purpose of these provisions.

As with prosecutions under section 444 of the Education Act 1996 a penalty notice may be issued to each parent liable for the offence in respect of each child.

Penalty notices apply to parents of children of compulsory school age who are registered pupils at maintained schools, academies, Pupil Referral Units (Education Support Centres), City Technology Colleges, Studio Schools, UTCs and any other alternative education provision arranged under section 19 of The Education Act 1996.

Parents cannot be prosecuted for the offence for which the penalty notice was issued until after the final deadline for payment has passed and the penalty remains unpaid. Parents cannot be convicted of that offence if the penalty is paid in accordance with the notice.

The Local Authority will retain any revenue from penalty notices to cover the administration of the scheme and any legal actions arising from it.

Rationale

Regular and punctual attendance is a legal requirement for pupils registered at schools, academies or other maintained or alternative provision.

A penalty notice may be a suitable intervention in circumstances of unauthorised absence where the school considers a parent is capable of securing their child's regular attendance. It may be particularly effective at an early stage before attendance problems become entrenched.

Circumstances in which a penalty notice may be issued

- Penalty notices may only be issued in cases of unauthorised absence
- The pupil must have at least 15 sessions (half days) unauthorised absence in the current and/or previous term
- The school must have sent a formal warning letter to each parent separately, addressed and on school headed paper. This must be sent by first class post.
- The purpose of the warning letter is to give a parent the opportunity to prevent further unauthorised absence, so should be sent as soon as unauthorised absence occurs.
- The formal warning letter must have been sent in the same term that the application for Penalty Notice is made.
- The school/academy/police or Local Authority Attendance Officer considers that issuing a penalty notice could avoid further absence
- Issuing a penalty notice does not conflict with any other legal action being taken
- Separate notices are issued to each parent in respect of each child.
- A maximum of two separate penalty notices will be issued to a parent within any twelve month period
- Penalty notices will be issued for pupils of compulsory school age, up to the end of the autumn term of year 11 – this is in order to ensure sufficient time to prosecute unpaid Notices
- A penalty notice will not be issued in respect of a pupil who is looked after by the Local Authority without the prior agreement of the Attendance Team Manager on behalf of the County Lead for Attendance
- Government guidance is clear that a Penalty Notice should not be issued unless the Local Authority is prepared to prosecute if it remains unpaid. The information contained in the application will form part of the evidence in any subsequent prosecution and therefore must be fully completed. If it is not, the Local Authority may decide not to issue the Notice.

Responsibilities of the Local Authority for issuing penalty notices

Primary responsibility for issuing penalty notices rests with the Local Authority and may not be delegated. Schools, academies and the police may issue penalty notices if they wish to do so but any notices issued by them must comply with the Local Authority Code of Conduct and a copy of any penalty notice issued must be provided to the Local Authority.

In Hertfordshire all parties agree that the Integrated Service for Learning Attendance Teams administer the scheme and issue penalty notices on behalf of police, schools, academies and other settings to ensure fairness and consistency and in the event that subsequent legal action may need to be taken.

The Local Authority receives applications to issue penalty notices from schools, academies and the police. Penalty notices will be issued provided that:

- the circumstances of the absence meet the requirements of the Code of Conduct
- the information is provided in the specified manner
- the request is received not more than 10 school days after the final absence cited

The Local Authority retains revenue from the scheme to cover the costs of issuing and enforcing notices and prosecuting recipients who do not pay.

Appealing against the issue of penalty notices

There is no statutory right of appeal once a penalty notice has been issued. The Local Authority may withdraw a notice if it has been issued incorrectly. If the penalty notice has been issued in accordance with Hertfordshire's Code of Conduct there is no facility to overturn the decision to issue the notice.

Effect of issuing penalty notices

If the penalty is not paid in full before the expiry of the period for paying it the Local Authority named in the notice shall either institute proceedings against the recipient for the offence or shall withdraw the notice. The School/Academy will be required to provide a witness statement and must be prepared to attend court if required.

Payment of penalty notices

The amount payable is £60 (per parent) if paid within 21 days or £120 (per parent) if paid after 21 days but within 28 days of receipt of the notice.

Separate notices are issued to each parent in respect of each child.

Penalty notices are sent by first class post and are deemed to have been received on the second day after posting.

Arrangements for payment are detailed on the penalty notice and payment by cheque, postal order and by debit/credit card is accepted.

Withdrawal of penalty notices

The Local Authority may withdraw penalty notices in circumstances where it determines that the notice:

- has not been issued in accordance with the Code of Conduct
- ought not to have been issued
- ought not to have been issued to the person named as the recipient
- has not been paid but it is not appropriate to prosecute the recipient for the Offence

Prosecution of unpaid penalty notices

If the notice remains unpaid after the expiry of the payment period and the Local Authority has not withdrawn the notice, the Local Authority will prosecute for the offence under section 444 of the Education Act 1996.

All decisions to prosecute (or not) rest with the Local Authority

First Day Contact Guidelines

For known absences, e.g. for medical appointments, school visits, music exams, etc, the school should be notified in writing at least one day in advance. For other absences, St Bernadette Catholic Primary School follows the First Day Contact procedure:

- 1 Parents/carers are required to telephone or email the school office before 9am to inform the school of the absence and the reason for absence. An indication should be given of the likely duration of the absence.
- 2 As soon as the registers are returned to the office, staff check absentees against messages received.
- 3 For pupils for whom no message has been received, staff will attempt to make contact with the parent by telephone at the earliest opportunity.
- 4 When contact is made, the parent will be asked for the reason for absence. In the event that no proper reason is supplied, the parent will be informed that the absence will not be authorised.
- 5 Where there is no answer, if possible a message will be left asking the parent to contact the school, or contact may be attempted by email.
- 6 Reasons for absence are then added to the register.

Dear Parent / Carer,

I understand that you are unhappy with the Headteacher's decision not to authorise time away from school to allow your child to take part in a family holiday.

Changes to legislation which came into force in September 2013, made clear that Headteachers may not grant any leave of absence during term time unless there are exceptional circumstances. Headteachers no longer have the discretion to allow up to 10 school days in a school year for a family holiday or to agree extended leave for parents to visit their country of origin.

If there are exceptional circumstances behind your request, you should discuss these with your Headteacher, if your child is absent from school because of a holiday which has not been agreed this will be classified as an unauthorised absence and you may be fined or legal action taken against you.

The power to authorise an absence rests with the Headteacher and not with the local authority. If you are unhappy with the Headteacher's decision you should follow the school complaints policy.

I am sure that you will want the best education for your child. By taking family holidays during the designated holiday period you will be supporting your child's full school attendance, learning and development.

Yours Sincerely,

Jenny Coles
